

THE JESUS MIRACLE

BY

SOPHIA R. BAILEY

ABOUT THIS BOOK

This book is the direct result of a vision I have received from the Lord approximately 30 years prior to the writing of this book. (See my explanation of the vision in the Introduction chapter of the book.) I did not aspire to become an author, but after the vision, I had (unknowingly) made a promise to God that I would write this book one day.

As the dreams and visions increased and I noticed a pattern of spiritual and prophetic dreams, I started recording them all in a book, as I realized I did not know if God had a plan for me by giving me these dreams.

Let the reader note and understand that I am not a biblical scholar, I have no theological training, nor have I any knowledge of Biblical languages or history, (other than what is written in the Bible), neither do I claim to have a complete understanding or explanation of God's Word. What I am sharing with you is purely what the Holy Spirit had revealed to me over the years. Apart from the dreams and visions I had also received revelations through His word. I would at times receive a dream and then at a later stage the dream would be verified by a scripture verse which really astounded me. The Holy Spirit would also speak to me through the "still small voice" into my spirit and through scripture, thereby I could recognize when the Lord had spoken to me, for He says: “My sheep hear my voice.”

In this book, I reference many scriptures, as all the revelations I had received, relate to scriptures and thereby the reader can be assured of the truth of my testimony and His Word.

Revelation 12 verse 11 “And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the Word of their testimony and they did not love their lives to the death,”

I consider myself blessed, being chosen by God to reveal Himself to me by His Spirit, through the dreams and visions and through His word. At one stage of my life, I became hungry for His word and eager to learn from it and to know God and have a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus. I am simply sharing what God has revealed to me in all simplicity. I believe that He saw my heart and prepared me to be obedient to His instructions and to share what He has taught me with others who are searching for truth.

The Gospel is not difficult to understand. The apostle Paul says that “we need not that anyone should teach us”, if the Holy Spirit is our teacher. He also says that “The wisdom of this world is foolishness to God for it is written that He catches the wise in their own craftiness.” And again, the Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile.” (1 Cor 3v19-20). (NKJV) Therefore, I do not claim to be wise according to the standards of the world, on the contrary, I profess to have only the Holy Spirit to credit my knowledge of scripture. Also, I have God’s word hidden in my heart so I can at all times call upon His Word.

I will not be able to debate wise scholars because I think that I am wise, but only through the power of the Holy Spirit am I able to make my case, for He will speak for Me.”

We must humble ourselves before God, no matter how smart we are. Pause for a moment and think how the Eternal God has humbled Himself to become like us. There can be no humiliation lower than that. It should not be that difficult for man to humble himself under the Mighty Hand of God. Humility is what God requires of us to reveal Himself to us and “He will exalt us in due time.”

We think we know everything, but we know so little. We do not know what we do not know, especially spiritual things because we can’t see into the spiritual realm. But with the Spirit of God dwelling inside of us, He reveals spiritual things to us in part. I always compare our lack of knowledge and understanding due to our physical nature and limitation to the earthly realm, to for example a fish living in the ocean. It knows nothing apart from the environment it lives in. A fish has no idea of the wide, wide world where humans dwell. How can he know? Therefore, we do not know the things of the Spirit, for “they are spiritually discerned.”

Another scripture I want to refer to, is found in 1 Corinthians 2 verses 20 to 30 in which the Apostle Paul talks about how the things that we humans consider wise that are foolishness to God. “For He has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise and chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things that are mighty and the base things of the world and the things which are despised, God had chosen “. (NKJV)

Having stated this, it is no offense to the wise, but only relates to the things of God revealed by His spirit, because the things of God is “spiritually discerned.” We cannot understand spiritual things with our natural minds.

Jeremiah 9 verse 23 “Let not the wise man glory in His wisdom. Let not the mighty man glory in his might. Nor let the rich man glory in his riches. But let him who glories, glory in this that he understands and knows Me that I Am the Lord exercising loving-kindness, judgement and righteousness in the earth. For in these I delight says the Lord,” (NKJV)

God does not do things in ways that we can understand. That is why we sometimes cannot comprehend His way of doing things in our lives.”

Isaiah 55 verse 9 ‘For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts’. (NKJV)

This book is written by the will, the guidance and the power of the Holy Spirit through His calling of me to fulfill the task that He has set before me. He has revealed Himself to me by His Spirit and I can truly say that the Holy Spirit was my teacher in learning the word of God. It is not of my own fleshly desire, but an “assignment” from Him.

*“Not by might nor by power but by My Spirit “says the Lord.”
Zechariah 4 verse 6. (NKJV)*

It is out of obedience to God, to give Him glory, to do my part in bringing the Gospel to those who are seeking, to share my experiences in which Holy Spirit has made known to me the ways in which He communicates with us. I became very hungry for the Word, though I did not understand it fully.

Because of my hunger for the Word and also because I had asked Him insight and more revelation to understand more of scripture, He willingly imparted this gift to me. In one of my dreams, the Hand of God poured water onto me from a cloud, which I later discovered in scripture meaning that God would make His words known to me.

Every person may not experience hearing from the Lord the same way that I did, but each one will hear from God in their own unique way, as He has bestowed different spiritual gifts upon His children, for those who are seeking Him and are hungry for His Word.

Jeremiah 23v28 "The prophet who has a dream let him tell a dream. And he who has My word let him speak My Word faithfully" (NKJV)

CONCLUSION

INTRODUCTION

In this introduction I am referencing a number of scriptures relating to my dreams and visions from the Lord.

While reading this book, please keep in mind the following two scripture verses as they directly relate to my dreams and visions.

Job 33 verse 14-15 "For God may speak in one way or another, yet man does not perceive it. In a dream or in a vision of the night. When deep sleep falls upon man, when slumbering on their beds, then He opens the ears of man and seals their instructions." (NKJV)

Numbers 12 verse 6: "If there is a prophet among you, I the Lord make myself known to him in a vision, I speak to him in a dream." (NKJV)

This book is the product of a vision that I had received from the Lord approximately 30 years prior to the writing of the manuscript. Here is the vision.

I had been slumbering on my bed, when a vision of a book appeared before my eyes in the spirit. The cover of the book that I saw, was red in color and the book was titled "The Jesus Miracle". At the bottom of the cover there was a depiction of the two grey stone tablets with ten commandments engraved on it in an ancient language that I did not understand. I woke up from this vision and sensed in my spirit saying "I will write this book someday". What I did not realize, was that I had made a promise to God by affirming that I would write the book. Years had passed and the book never came to fruition. At times I had forgotten about it, but God did not forget.

Throughout the years, I did not know what God wanted the content of the book to be. I certainly did not know what the theme of the book would be. I reasoned by myself whether the theme of the book should be about the works that Jesus had performed throughout His ministry on earth, or whether it should be about the Miracle of God Himself becoming a man. I tend to lean more towards the doctrine of God in human form than the miracles He had performed, although the miracles He had performed while on the earth are not be curtailed. Therefore, I waited on His instructions.

The years went by and I would at times just forget about the “assignment”. However, as time passed, God in His divine wisdom, continued giving me dreams and visions, continually speaking to me through His Word and through the “still small voice” of the Holy Spirit. What was unbeknown to me, was that God was indeed preparing me for the authoring of “His” book as He opened my understanding to His Word and revealed knowledge to me through dreams. At the time I was puzzled as to why I was receiving all the spiritual and prophetic dreams and information, but after many years I began to understand why I had to go through the “training processes” in my life. Things started falling into place, coming together like a jigsaw puzzle. God had a plan all along and He worked through it systematically in His wisdom and at the same time had to do a work in me, drawing me closer to Him and enabling me to discern His Voice.

I do not proclaim myself a prophet, but in the sense that the Lord had spoken to me in dreams and visions, I will let the truth of my experiences speak for itself. (I prefer to remain His humble maidservant). God has blessed each of His children with spiritual gifts and He has blessed me with this gift of prophetic and spiritual dreams and the revelation of the person and divinity of Jesus Christ. Not only did the Lord blessed and spoke to me in dreams and visions, but He also made His Words “known to me”.

God has given me the wisdom and revelation of the knowledge of Him (Christ Jesus) of His own will for which I am forever grateful.

Sometimes the message was for the body of Christ and sometimes it was meant for me personally – for my own spiritual growth, knowledge and understanding of Him. I have found the grace in this time to fulfill my promise to Him, after realizing what the message should be that He wanted me to bring to His people. In His perfect time, God made everything come together and the vision became clear.

The vision that the prophet Habakkuk wrote about, reminded me of my own vision which I received from the Lord.

Habakkuk 2 verse 3 “For the vision is yet for an appointed time but at the end of it it will speak and will not lie. Though it tarries wait for it because it will surely come. It will not tarry.” (NKJV)

A fire was rekindled in me towards the end of 2024 to start writing the book and once I dived into it, the words just started flowing from my heart, through the pen onto the pages. He made known to me the meaning of some of my dreams through scripture that I had not understood before. I enjoyed writing this book once I decided it was time to proceed. I delighted in the renewed knowledge and understanding of what my task is to be and how to bring it to fulfillment. In a dream God had a golden pen delivered to me from heaven, into my right hand, so I believed it to be a mandate from Him, that is why everything came together so easy in the end. The “J.C.” pen served its purpose and I could proceed the daunting task of writing down every word that I perceived the Holy Spirit was guiding me by. See my dream about the golden pen from heaven in Chapter 8 c.

As the dreams and visions became more frequent with time, I realized that there must be a reason why I was getting these, there seemed to be a sequence of spiritual revelations to it, but I did not understand it at that time. I started taking note and I decided to start keeping a record of them in a diary.

Although God had given me the dreams and spiritual knowledge, this book is primarily about Jesus (Yeshua). God has shown me that Jesus is the “High and Mighty One enthroned on the praises of His people.”

I haven’t been faithful in the beginning since I haven’t committed to His plans for my life - plans that God had intended for me. Also, I did not take it too seriously, as at the time, I did not plan to make Him the center of my life. I knew that there was a calling from God upon my life, but I did not know what to do about it and how to go about it. During this time of doubting and delaying, I had a dream wherein God reprimanded me for, I guess, not taking Him serious about His call in which said to me: “I spoke and you did not listen. I spoke again and you did not understand.” It took me years to understand that God had an assignment for me for His plans and for His purposes. (Jeremiah 7 verse 13 says: “and I spoke to you rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear and calling you, but you did not answer.” (NKJV) (I had been hard of hearing the call of the Spirit for so many years.

The cares of life sidetracked me, I lost vision and hope that I could ever serve the purpose of my calling. It became my heart’s desire to serve the Lord in a full-time capacity. However, I never lost that dream, the promise to God that I would write a book about the things that He had taught me, especially the Revelation of Christ Jesus to me personally. Having said this, I always believed that Jesus is the God of creation. I needed no prove from Him to reveal Himself to me (because I believed it in my heart.) I didn’t ask Him for it. Yet it was His will to give me these revelations to strengthen my faith and to share these revelations with the body of Christ.

God had remained faithful to me, even though I had given up at times. In my natural mind I could not fathom how the Lord could put all of the broken pieces of my shattered life together, after more than 30 years of procrastination.

Jesus never gives up on us, no matter how unfaithful we become, because scripture says that “He cannot be unfaithful to Himself” – as we are all part of Him.

At the time of writing this book, I had lost much of my vision (eyesight) and my health. I realized that I did not have a choice but to complete my task for when I was young and healthy I did not have the courage and the “knowing” to embark on the journey which I totally regret now.

I have been through many trials especially the last number of years, suffering in every area of my life, sometimes almost lost hope that He would come through for me. The worst part of my suffering was my health and it got so bad at times that I thought I could not go on living with the pain anymore. But many people prayed and interceded for me and God has been faithful because there was a definite improvement in my health, although not everything in my life had improved. I did not die as I wanted to, for my assignment had not been completed yet.

I mention this to make a point that when there is a call on your life from God, then you'd better be ready for sacrifice and hardship. Nothing is going smooth when you are walking the way of the cross. The enemy will attack you at all times, because he wants you to quit, but you got to keep going in your walk with Christ.

We have to take up our cross and follow Him. Believers are called righteous because Christ is our righteousness. "We are saved by grace and not of ourselves, it is a gift of God, so that no one could boast." Ephesians 2 verse 6 (NKJV)

My dreams and visions are not extra biblical revelations, but it is aligned with scripture. I am certainly not bringing "another gospel" to you. I trust that nobody will feel that my message is not in line with scripture, but instead, I urge you to search the scriptures for yourselves to test my message to see whether it is true. Anyone can learn something valuable from it, because it can aid others in their spiritual walk with God. I do advise you to also pray about it and ask Holy Spirit to reveal the truth to you. My heart has been exceedingly sad for many years for my brethren who have been led astray by strange doctrines.

Jesus Christ is the wisdom of God and only through the revelation of Him can we say that He is Lord. “For the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of prophecy. Revelation 19 verse 10. (NKJV)

In Chapter 2g, I talk about my encounter with an angel of light. My understanding is that people who receive messages from “Angels” to take to others, are probably being deceived, especially if they do not know the Word and do not have spiritual discernment. The Bible says that even Satan Himself can appear as an angel of light.

We should always ask God for spiritual wisdom and discernment about new teachings, for without discernment, many people are being led astray by deceiving spirits and “doctrines of demons”. God has placed a burden on my heart, not only for the lost, but also for people who are led astray so easily by teachings of man, simply because they do not know the Word. Bear in mind that “The Word of God is Yes and Amen”. We need no other teaching from anyone even if it is from an Angel - we do have God’s Word and we only need to heed His Word believe that His Word is true and be obedient to His commandments”

Helping people to understand the simplicity, beauty and the truth of scripture, the knowledge and the understanding of the Holy One of Israel, will be a great honor, blessing and privilege for me. I want people to “taste and see that the Lord is good”. Having said that, it doesn’t mean that we will not encounter suffering and hardship. Every believer will have to endure some time or other, and to some extent, what it is to follow Christ. But we need to be encouraged to look to the upward call of God, to run the race with endurance, to finish strong and at last receive our crowns in Glory.

My mission is to bring God glory, to help people know and understand who Jesus (Yeshua) is, to encourage people to study and know the word of God and to become anchored in the truth of God's word.

It is also my desire to give birth to my destiny of authoring this book for His glory, by His Word and by the leading of His Holy Spirit.

I hope that this book will be of great insight and blessing to all who read it and I pray that the Lord will fill you with His wisdom, knowledge, discernment and understanding and the knowledge of Christ Jesus.

Lastly, by sharing my experiences of His revelations to me through my dreams, I hope that this book might be an evangelizing tool for the advancement of the Gospel.
